

2021 ESSAY CONTESTS

PRIZES

This year the Kemper Human Rights Education Foundation (khref.org) is offering $2000, $1000 and $500 prizes to high school students judged to have written the best answers to the following:

QUESTION

Does the distribution of income and wealth in your country and/or between countries violate human rights and if so what can and should be done about it?

CRITERIA

1. There are two contests: one for high school students in the U.S. and one for high school students who are citizens and residents of other countries.
2. Essays are due on or before December 10, 2021 (Human Rights Day),
3. Essays should be approximately 2500 words in length and be submitted as a Microsoft Word attachment to: kemperhumanrights@gmail.com or by regular mail to: KHREF, 184 Fallow Street, Norwalk, CT 06850.
4. Essays will be judged according to how clearly and well they answer the question posed and the extent to which they are supported by research.
5. Submissions should include a cover page with the: title of the essay, author's name and grade level, the name and address of the author's high school, the name of a teacher or administrator at the high school and the following statement signed by the author and author's parent or guardian: "I give the Kemper Human Rights Education Foundation permission to publish this essay."

AWARDS

Winners will be announced and awards presented on January 14, 2022.